

NEW EU RULES ON MAINTENANCE PROVISIONS

New EU wide rules which apply from the 21st June 2011 should benefit the payment of maintenance where the spouses live in different jurisdictions. In effect the new rules will allow people to recover maintenance claims in cross border situations in that a decision on maintenance obligations in one EU country will be enforceable in another one without any special procedure.